Brand New in 2021!

18-24 Month Commitment

Budget Friendly & Affordable

New Monthly Cohort Advisory

New Training Opportunities through IAMPE

Virtual Learning Integration

1 Have you spoken to your Executive Director or Direct Supervisor about your intention to apply? Are they willing to write you a letter of endorsement?

(To qualify, you must be recommended by your Executive Director or Direct Supervisor.)

2 Have you chosen a program Advisor?

(Candidates must select a person from their port or organization to act as a mentor to provide advice and support for the duration of the PPM® program.)

3 Has your resume been updated recently?

(Must submit a copy of your resume.)

4 Have you spent time reflecting on your career goals and how the PPM® will help you achieve them?

(Must write a short essay describing why you want to be considered for the program.)

5 Have you reviewed your budget and travel availability for attendance in the program?

With a shorter time frame and reduced overall costs, the newly revised PPM® program is more cost effective and efficient than ever before!

Make sure to MARK YOUR CALENDARS for the first required course of the program — Marine Terminal Management Training on April 25-29th, 2022 in Savannah, GA.
